INTRODUCTION

With few exceptions, agency management may authorize an employee to travel on official State business and to incur necessary costs to accomplish the objectives of such travel.

POLICIES

1. With respect to travel requests and authorizations, an agency head or his designee has the responsibility to:
 - 1.1. Review and approve any travel policies adopted by the agency.
 - 1.1.1. These policies should include who—and under which circumstances and using what criteria—within the agency may determine whether travel in the U.S. within one hundred (100) miles of the Arizona border is to be considered in-state or out-of-state travel.
 - 1.1.2. The determination as to whether travel in the U.S. within one hundred miles (100) miles of the Arizona border should be as uniform as practicable within the agency, but may vary by types of duty, unit, funding source, budgetary constraints, and other pertinent operational considerations.
 - 1.2. Initiate, review, approve and forward, as circumstances require, to the ADOA Director or the State Comptroller, requests for exceptions to State Travel Policy that require the approval of the Director of ADOA or the State Comptroller.
 - 1.3. Authorize in-state and out-of-state travel that conforms without exception to State Travel Policy.
 - 1.4. Sign any Forms GAO-509, GAO-509A and/or GAO-509S that may be required.
 - 1.5. Authorize the use of chartered or rental aircraft.
2. An agency head may delegate his authority, universally or on a case-by-case basis, to those whom he so chooses, to approve in-state and out-of-state travel that conforms without exception to State Travel Policy. Such delegation of authority must be in writing and retained for a period consistent with that prescribed by LAPR for accounting records.
