Revenue Source Accounts

Introduction

Revenue Sources are used to record cash and non-cash receipt transactions entered into AFIS. The following list of Revenue Sources includes all Revenue Sources valid for use on or after the date issued until superseded. This list is updated as needed to reflect changes.

Revenue Sources are generally organized by the following Source Groups:

- 4100 Taxes
- 4200 Intergovernmental Revenue
- 4300 Sales & Charges for Services, Goods & Capital
- 4400 Licenses, Permits & Fees
- 4500 Fines, Forfeitures & Penalties
- 4600 Other Revenue
- 4800 Non-Revenue Cash Receipts
- 4900 Transfers-In

Revenue Sources that are shaded are subject to restrictions and generally should not be used by agencies other than those mentioned in the description or have otherwise received the permission of the State Comptroller. Special requirements and other information in the Description follow the pipe symbol (|).

Requests for the addition of a Revenue Source should be directed to the GAO for consideration.
