

Bisk CPA Review currently offers 3 online CPA review options for candidates preparing for the CPA exam.

Instructor-led Online CPA Review - Our instructor-led online CPA review course gives you the hands-on guidance of a live review with the flexibility of online learning.

What separates Bisk's Instructor-Led Online CPA Review from every other provider is that since 1971, our courses have been and still are written and instructed by actual CPAs, attorneys, and industry leaders such as Bob Monette (JD, CPA). The program offers the hands-on guidance, structure, and support of a live class combined with the flexibility and convenience of online learning.

With Bisk's Instructor-Led Online CPA Review, candidates have access to their courses 24/7 for a 7-month access period (covering 2 exam windows), so they can study on their schedule, anytime, anywhere. They'll also be able to interact with other students and accounting professionals including some of the industry's most knowledgeable CPA review instructors via email, chat rooms and message boards.

The online classroom setting features 7 weeks of structured assignments, streaming lectures, robust study guides, hundreds of review questions, assignments and Bisk's own "Personal Trainer", a tool designed to allow the candidate to create practice tests based on their study performance. Online availability also gives them instant reference to appropriate text feature, final exams formatted just like the actual exam and color-coded tracking of their exam performance. They can practice with thousands of exam questions, including multiple choice, written communication, and task-based simulations – all randomly selected to replicate an authentic CPA exam experience.

Candidates receive a full set of Bisk's CPA Review comprehensive textbooks, as well as an online e-book to ensure study materials are always on-hand. Courses are available as a complete four-section review or individually for Financial Accounting & Reporting, Regulation, Auditing & Attestation, and Business Environment & Concepts.

In addition to the many online features, candidates will also receive a set of Simulation Strategy DVDs, which tackle the tough simulation questions that test takers fear most. These DVDs guide viewers through a variety of case studies and their unique solutions, helping build the skills and self-assurance necessary to successfully recognize and react to these challenging questions.

The online classroom is updated every session to assure candidates are studying the most current information needed in order to pass the CPA Exam on their first attempt.

Advanced Self-Directed Online CPA Review - Bisk's Advanced Self-Directed Online CPA Review combines online study with video lectures on CD to provide the ideal self-directed exam preparation program. This innovative review covers all four exam sections
