Form B2: Disclosure Statement of Significant Financial Interests

(Only to be completed if required by answers provided on Form A)

Employee Name:	EIN:	Title:
Agency:		Dept/Unit:

CONFLICT OF INTEREST: In compliance with Federal, and State policies, disclosure of relevant significant financial interest is required of all members of management. The disclosure of interests includes those of the State employee, his or her spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, brother or sister of the whole or half blood and their spouses and the parent, brother, sister or child of a spouse.

"Significant Financial Interest" means anything of monetary value including, but not limited to, salary or other payments for services (e.g., consulting fees or honoraria), equity interests (e.g., stocks, stock options, or other ownership interests), and intellectual property rights (e.g., patents, copyrights, and royalties from such rights). The term does not include salary, royalties, or other remuneration from the State, including funds and holdings acquired through the States' retirement programs.

A. IDENTIFICATION OF POSSIBLE CONFLICT

Identify the relevant activities that may be affected by the financial or ownership interest that you, your spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, brother or sister of the whole or half blood and their spouses and the parent, brother, sister or child of a spouse may have. Complete the remainder of this form with this possible conflict in mind.

C. RECEIPT OF COMPENSATION

List all places of employment and any other business from which you or any relative expect to receive compensation which to an independent observer could influence or potentially conflict with any of your job responsibilities with the State. List place(s) of employment or other business in the preceding calendar year.

Check here if you have nothing to report in Section "C".
